

Presentation

Where assessment fits: Assessing learning in context to your curriculum and classroom teaching

Presenter

Mr Kevin Bartlett

Director of the International School of Brussels

Mr Kevin Bartlett has held leadership positions in Tanzania, Namibia, Austria and Belgium. Kevin has been deeply involved in designing accreditation systems for the European Council of International Schools and the Council of International Schools, leadership training for the Principals' Training Center and The International Leadership and Management Programme, and curriculum design, as the initiator and early leader of the IB Primary Years Programme. Kevin is currently involved in launching two global initiatives: The Next Frontier: Inclusion and The Common Ground Collaborative, a new curriculum project for international and national schools. Most significantly Kevin is, first and foremost, a practitioner.