

Presentation

Assessment and Policy: a Finnish perspective

Presenter

Professor Patrik Scheinin

Professor of Education and the Dean and former Vice Dean of the Faculty of Behavioural Sciences at the University of Helsinki

Professor Patrik Scheinin is Vice Chair of the Board of the Open University of Helsinki, board member of the Helsinki Area Summer University, Vice Chair of the Central Campus Library Committee of the University of Helsinki, and a former Vice Director of the Department of Education. He received the University of Helsinki Scholarship for Especially Talented Young Researchers for two three-year periods, first in 1986 and again in 1989. Patrik is Vice Director and a founding member of the Centre for Educational Assessment, member of the steering group of the Finnish PISA Project, and is a former board member of the Helsinki University Collegium for Advanced Studies. He is an expert and referee for several scientific journals, foundations and conferences, and has been scientific expert for projects of the Finnish National Board of Education, as well as of the Swedish National Agency for Education. He is a member of several national and international research associations. His research interests are cognitive abilities and thinking skills, self-concept and self-esteem and their structure and development, educational interventions promoting development of cognitive abilities and personality, educational assessment and evaluation research, as well as teaching and learning in higher education.